Employment Rights of Gay Teachers

RESOLUTION

WHEREAS the American Psychological Association deplores all public and private discrimination in such areas as employment, housing, public accommodation, and licensing against those who engage in or have engaged in homosexual activities and declares that no burden of proof of such judgment, capacity, or reliability shall be placed upon these individuals greater than that imposed on any other person;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the American Psychological Association protests personnel actions against any teacher solely because of sexual orientation or affectional preference.

Adopted by the American Psychological Association Council of Representatives on January 23–25, 1981.
