II. Programs Offered and Student Information

7. Question 7 asks for detailed information about each graduate program you have. Please enter the following information:

Column 1: List all program areas (degree fields) offered. Be certain to distinguish between "Counseling" and "Counseling Psychology," "Education" and "Educational Psychology," and so forth. If necessary, list additional programs with corresponding information from columns 2-11 on the next page. If a degree program that is listed below is no longer being offered by your department, please cross it out. Do not cover up or erase the program listed.

Column 2: Enter the code number from Code List 1, "Codes for Types of Degrees," that corresponds to the degree you offer for each program. Code List 1 appears under question 5 of this questionnaire.

Column 3: This column applies to master's programs only. Place a check in this column if the master's is offered as a terminal degree (i.e., program accepts students seeking only a master's degree).

Column 4: Enter the code numbers from Code List 2, "Codes for Index Headings," that correspond to the index headings under which you would like to have the program listed in the section of the book called "Index by Areas Offered." No more than 3 code numbers may be listed for each program area. Each program will be listed under a maximum of 3 index headings in the book. Code List 2 appears at the end of the questionnaire.

Column 5: Enter the number of degrees awarded in each program area from July 01, 1998 through June 30, 1999. Write a zero in this column if no degrees were awarded by a program during this period.

Column 6: Enter the number of applications received by each program for academic year 1999-2000.

Column 7: Enter the total number of applicants accepted for academic year 1999-2000 (including those students who did not actually enroll).

Column 8: Enter the number of applicants (new admissions only) enrolled by each program for academic year 1999-2000.

Column 9: Enter the total number of students enrolled full-time by each program in 1999-2000. Please note that this is the total number of full-time students in the program, not new admissions.

Column 10: Enter the total number of students enrolled part-time by each program in 1999-2000. Please note that this is the total number of part-time students in the program, not new admissions.

Column 11: Enter the number of openings anticipated by each program for academic year 2000-2001.

If there were no applications or students enrolled in a specific program, enter "0" (zero) in the appropriate column.
Columns left blank will be interpreted as missing or unavailable data.
